

Group Output C - The On-Site Visit Practices

Strengths/Best Practices	Number Agree	Areas Needing Improvement	Number Agree
1. Hospitable and accommodating host institutions	32	1. Accreditors are late in submitting reports	24
2. Accreditors apply triangulation in gathering and proving pieces of evidence	24	2. SSI and PPP are not given on Day 0	24
3. Team of accreditors applies collegial decision-making	24	3. Team leaders need to check the recommendations made by the lead accreditors to refrain from using the term shall/should/must and to validate the reports to avoid complicating statements.	20
4. Team meetings are conducted on-time	23	4. Host SUCs are not well-prepared as to documents needed	16
5. Distribution of area of assignment is based on the expertise of the accreditors	18	5. ANI are limited to only two(2) items	16
6. Courtesy call and opening program are conducted briefly	18	6. Counterparts are not available during gathering of infos due to late preparation of documents	16
7. Accreditors are knowledgeable of tasks and very professional in their dealings	16	7. Poor packaging of documents	15
8. Accreditors arrive on time	16	8. AACCU needs to assign one accreditor per area of specialization	10
9. Accreditors are fetched at the port for travel inland	15	9. Areas should be assigned to professors not students	10
10. Orientation of accreditors is properly conducted by the OC	6	10. OCs and TLs sometimes do not ask the expertise of accreditors in assigning areas to accredit.	10
11. Tasks allow development of accreditors' leadership potentials	6	11. Bulk of assignments for human resource	6
12. Accreditors are flexible in cases where accreditors are few (willing to take cut-across assignments )		12. Duplication of documents may suggest to put a note	6
13. Host institution provides comfortable accommodation of accreditors	6
14. Conduct of Exit Conference and Closing Program is well organized	6
15. Framing of talks and expected outputs is shared out during meetings	6
16. Validation is enhanced/strengthened during decision-making prior to report writing
17. The institution has a well organized task force that does not overlap to the other areas of assignment	1		